Issues Raised by Our Community

Key health and care updates and concerns

Do medical professionals talk to someone else and not you the patient?

A patient with a pre-existing condition, a masters degree, felt that professionals did not speak to them as the patient but spoke to the person with them.

Have you experienced this? Tel: 0800 470 1660

Some people say that they experience rude reception staff at GP Services

Have you experienced this?

Tell us! 0800 470 1660

Waiting times in A&E (Emergency Care Centre)

A number of patients who have attended Walsall Emergency Care Centre have said they have waited between 1 to 9 hours for treatment.

It seems to be a lottery of how long you may wait.

Have you experienced this? Tel: 0800 470 1660

What service or issue do you want us to look at in 2026?

We will soon be setting our work programme for 26/27

Share your views on what we should look at.
Tel: 0800 470 1660

Is the move to digital access leaving some people behind?

Some patients feel that they cannot access services if they have to go online.

Initially affecting access to see a GP or access their services. People may be failing to access diagnosis and treatment at the first point of access.

If you feel this is you let us know! 0800 470 1660

If you have any concerns about any health or social care services, then please get in touch. Or if you wish to leave a compliment then you can share those as well.

The work we have been doing

Our monthly updates

As well as our public engagement outreach at various Walsall locations we have produced a number of reports which are based on what you told us.

Each month we produce an 'Insight E-Bulletin' that gives a brief overview of what we have been doing and some of the issues that you have raised. This feeds into our services intelligence and can highlight key concerns, issues and themes that you have shared with us.

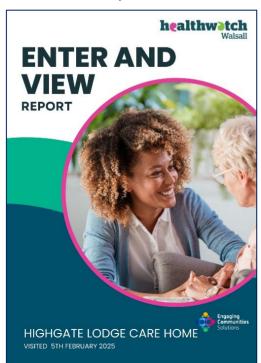

To read these & other monthly E-Bulletins use the link: https://tinyurl.com/mr2ukcuc

Our Enter and View Visits

As well as our public engagement and outreach at various Walsall locations. Each month we carry out Enter & View visits to care homes and primary care services. We listen to service users to find out about what does and what does not work for them.

From our visits, we produce our report sharing what service users told us and what we saw on the day of our visit.

Our Enter & View programme covers a range of venues from GP surgeries to pharmacies, care and residential homes and day centres. We aim to have as broad a programme of visits as possible.

Our reports can help identify service users' needs for improvements or to highlight the excellent work that service providers deliver through their hard-working staff. Ultimately this will make a positive service user experience for the people of Walsall.

If you want to share an experience of a service, you can do this in your own time 24/7 by visiting our 'Have Your Say' platform.

Energy Saving Measures

To make your home more energy efficient

If your house has Cavity Walls, consider adding insulating foam to your walls

Insulate your lofts, Lofts are another ideal location for insulation materials

If your boiler is over 10 years old, replace it with a newer more energy efficient model

Solar Panels can help reduce energy bills by using naturel energy

Insulating your floor is a great way to keep your property warm and energy efficient

Air source heat pumps are an energy efficient alternative to boilers

Simple tips To help reduce your energy bills

Turn off all electrical appliances when not in use, they still cost money when on standby

Consider using LED light bulbs, in the long term they use less energy

Stop filling the kettle up to the brim, use only the water vou need

Only use a dishwasher or washing machine when they are full

Cover your pans when cooking, food will cook quicker, using less energy

Keep windows and doors closed to save heat for your home

Try not to spend more than four minutes in the shower

When using the washing machine, don't put the temperature above 30°c

Update your appliances, newer electrical appliances are usually more energy efficient

Consider using an air fryer, they use far less energy than an oven

Move your furniture away from radiators on the wall to enable warm air to flow

Don't overcharge your phone or appliances, it costs money and weakens the battery

Black Country 0-18 years website is here to support you this winter

Health partners across the Black Country are renewing efforts to promote the 0-18 years website, encouraging parents, parents-to-be, carers, and young people to make full use of the trusted health information available – particularly during winter.

The website provides clear, accessible, and reliable guidance to help families recognise common childhood illnesses, understand when to seek medical help, and support young people's physical and emotional wellbeing. With winter bringing an expected rise in seasonal illnesses, the renewed campaign aims to ensure families feel confident, informed, and prepared.

The campaign highlights key features of the website, including: Winter health advice on coughs, colds, fever, RSV, asthma, and how to manage common seasonal symptoms at home Guidance for parents-to-be and new parents, including feeding, safe sleep, vaccinations, and early child development

Support for young people, covering mental health, self-care, puberty, and accessing help. Clear signposting to local services, reducing unnecessary pressure on urgent and emergency care.

Dr Tania Hussain, Clinical lead for Children and Young People for the NHS Black Country Integrated Care Board (ICB), said: "As we head into winter, it's more important than ever that families feel supported with trustworthy information about their child's health.

"The website offers practical guidance developed by healthcare professionals to help parents and young people make informed decisions and access the right care at the right time. We're urging families to familiarise themselves with the site, so they feel prepared, reassured, and confident when illness strikes."

By promoting the website this winter, the NHS hopes to empower families with the knowledge they need to keep children safe and well, while ensuring health services remain available for those who need them most.

For more information and to access this resource, visit Black Country 0-18 years website.
